

"Danille will bring a fresh voice for the 24th District in the State Senate" - Former State Rep. Jim Buck

A photograph of Danille Turissini, a woman with short brown hair wearing a light blue jacket and a necklace, sitting on the floor in a classroom. She is surrounded by several young children who are focused on playing with wooden blocks. The background shows a typical classroom setting with wooden cabinets and a blue door.

Danille Turissini is focused on our future.

She believes every child deserves a world-class education, regardless of their zip code.

Danille Turissini for State Senate

Building Bridges, Not Barriers.

Danille Turissini is focused on improving our community by solving problems. As a local leader, she's not afraid to take on big challenges and get the job done. She'll take the same approach to Olympia as our State Senator.

Danille knows a sound economy depends on government working to improve small business, not exploit them. She strongly opposes a new state income tax.

These are some of the many reasons she is endorsed by former State Rep. Jim Buck and former Attorney General Rob McKenna, retired Peninsula Daily News Publisher John Brewer, Meredith Parker (Makah), former Port Angeles Port Commissioner John Calhoon, Jefferson Co. Sheriff Dave Stanko, Quigg Bros Inc. President John Quigg, Crab Fisherman Larry Thevik, among many other elected officials, community leaders and fellow citizens.

It's time for a change. It's time to elect Danille Turissini.

Danille (Independent GOP) will work hard for all of us.
